

What's driving pollinator decline ?

in different parts of the world

According to experts, the way we use land is the most important driver of pollinator decline. Pesticide use and climate change are next.

We are uncertain about the relative importance of many drivers.

